

JCN. 11/1/65
Invest. Sub.
Photo Gap

UPL-96

WASHINGTON

CHAIRMAN JOHN C. STENNIS SAID TODAY THAT THE SENATE'S CUBA INVESTIGATION IS GEARED TO THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE AND NOT JUST TO "REVEALING OR SPOTLIGHTING ANY PAST ERRORS OR DEFICIENCIES."

THE MISSISSIPPI DEMOCRAT COMMENTED IN A STATEMENT PREPARED FOR THE OPENING OF THE SENATE PREPAREDNESS SUBCOMMITTEE'S CUBA INQUIRY. MAJ. GEN. ROBERT A. BREITWEISER, AIR FORCE INTELLIGENCE CHIEF, WAS CALLED TO TESTIFY BEHIND CLOSED DOORS.

"I WANT TO STRESS THAT OUR INVESTIGATION IS NOT PUNITIVE IN ITS NATURE AND IS NOT UNDERTAKEN FOR THE MERE PURPOSE OF REVEALING OR SPOTLIGHTING ANY PAST ERRORS OR DEFICIENCIES. WE ARE CONCERNED Largely WITH THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE," THE SENATOR SAID.

2/27--MM2L5PES